Government at least be pleased to consider the delay of one day caused by the late delivery and take into account 11 days instead of 12? Then there would be no difficulty at all.

Mr. Inthamath Achyuta Menon—Participation in elections.

155. Mr. P. Raman Menon.—Will the Government be pleased to state.—

(a) whether the Inspector of Schools, Northern Division, received any petition aleging that one Mr. Inthamath Achyuta Menon, a teacher in the Government Malayalam School at Varadiam was actively participating in the elections in the Mulakunnathukavu constituency ;

(b) whether the said Mr. Achyuta Menon was caught red handed by the Deputy Inspector who went to inquire into the matter at the instance of the Inspector of Schools, Northern Division ;

(c) what further action has been taken in the matter ?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—(a) Yes.

(b) No.

(c) No answer is necessary in view of the answer to sub-division (b).

Mr. P. Raman Menon.—Did the Deputy Inspector at the instance of the Inspector of Schools make any enquiry ?

Mr. I. N. Menon—Yes.

Mr. P. Raman Menon.—What enquiry did he make?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—He went to the place and tried to find out if the party to the allegation existed and finding that there was no person answering to the name of the petitioner he tried to collect as much information as possible by going round the place. I knew that the complaint was not by a genuine person. Yet we tried to collect information. But when the Government found that the allegations contained in the letter were not true, they did not pursue the enquiry any further.

Mr. P. Raman Menon.—Is the Deputy Inspector the same man referred to in the petition who actually did some mischief ?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—No.

Mr. P. Raman Menon.—Were the allegations in the petition false ?

Mr. I. N. Menon.—Yes.

Regulations—publication of.

156. Mr. P. Raman Menon.—(a) Will the Government be pleased to state whether all the Regulations in force in the State and the amendments, if any, thereto are available in the Cochin Government Press at present;

(b) have the Government any idea of compiling such Regulations and publishing them in handy volumes in the near future?

Mr. Thomas Manjuran.—(a) Not all.

(b) Yes. The work is in progress.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—May I know, Sir, whether any volume of this regulation is ready?

Mr. Thomas Manjuran.—The special regulations have been compiled and are going through the press. With regard to the other Regulations one volume is at least ready and the work in connection with more volumes is also in progress to a certain extent. Government expect to publish them as soon as possible.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan—May we know the approximate time when we will get all these regulations?

Mr. Thomas Manjuran.—It is not possible to give the precise date. I expect a good portion of the work will be gone through in 1111. And everything that can be done to expedite the work will be done.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar.—How long have they been promising like this?

Mr. Thomas Manjuran.—They have been promising from the moment the necessity was felt and they have been acting to that promise. The special regulations are in progress. The work of compilation of other regulations is also going on. You must consider the large amount of work to get them printed, corrected and published.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar.—For a number of years they were making this promise. When was this matter brought to the notice of the Government?
